

Bonnie Brae

Small Victories. Every Day.

Bequest Language

A bequest—a gift in your will—is simple and convenient. You can create a legacy through a bequest.

Your bequest can be a specific dollar amount or a percentage of your estate. You can designate your bequest for general use, or you can restrict its use. Many individuals establish endowments that honor the memory of a family member or a loved one. These endowments live forever because only the portion of the fund available for spending each year is paid out annually.

Examples of various types of bequests

Specific bequests are used to make a gift of a specific dollar amount or specific asset (such as securities, real estate, or personal property).

Residuary bequests are used to give all or a portion of the remainder of your estate after payment of expenses and any specific amounts designated to other beneficiaries.

Including Bonnie Brae in your will

The following includes several examples of suggested bequest wording to benefit Bonnie Brae.

Each individual situation is unique; therefore, these examples include only some of the possible gift opportunities. We encourage you to discuss your intentions with us at Bonnie Brae to ensure that your wishes will be properly followed and recognized.

Because a will is an important legal document, you should seek an attorney's help. To assist you with this important process, we offer suggested wording below.

Percentage of estate for unrestricted purposes

"I give to Bonnie Brae, a nonprofit organization located in Liberty Corner, NJ, _____ percent (%) of the remainder of my estate for its general charitable purposes."

Percentage of estate to establish an endowed fund

"I give to Bonnie Brae, a nonprofit organization located in Liberty Corner, NJ, _____ percent (%) of the remainder of my estate to establish the _____ Endowed Fund. The portion of this fund available for spending each year shall be used to _____. Contributions may be added to the Fund at any time.

"If changed circumstances should at some future time make it impractical to continue administering the Fund for the purpose designated, then the Bonnie Brae Board of Trustees may redesignate the purpose—provided that the terms adhere as closely as possible to the original intent."

Specific amount for unrestricted purposes

"I give to Bonnie Brae, a nonprofit organization located in Liberty Corner, NJ, the sum of $_____ in cash (or _____ shares of _____ stock) to be used for its general charitable purposes."

Specific amount for specific purposes

"I give, devise, and bequeath to Bonnie Brae, a nonprofit organization located in Liberty Corner, NJ, the sum of $_____ in cash or in-kind (or _____ shares of _____ stock) to be used for _____ at Bonnie Brae.

"If changed circumstances should at some future time make it impractical to continue administering the Fund for the purpose designated, then the Bonnie Brae Board of Trustees may redesignate the purpose—provided the terms adhere as closely as possible to my original intent."

Designating the purpose of a bequest

Unrestricted: The most useful type of bequest is unrestricted, allowing the funds to be allocated wherever the need is greatest and taking into account that changes (programs, laws, etc.) may necessitate a use that cannot be anticipated at the time of the gift. Bonnie Brae has many needs throughout the year; if there are special projects that need funding, we can discuss these with you.
